

WASHINGTON, DC – Congressman John W. Olver (First District) today sharply criticized the late

"There is no question our national forests will be harmed by this proposal, which is probably why i

The Administration's proposal will allow logging and other commercial activities in national forests

Under the Bush proposal, a much less comprehensive assessment of logging and development p

"These proposals actually eliminate protections for vital watersheds that safeguard our drinking w

The National Forest Management Act of 1976 governs management of all 192 million acres of nat

"Our national forests belong to all Americans, not just the Bush Administration's corporate support

###